THE FORMATION OF THE AMERICAN BOOK COMPANY resulted from an early attempt to realize "scientific management." Efficiency and economy were its two objects. Its textbooks have kept pace with the development of education and with the most enlightened views of progressive teachers and superintendents. Whenever a new need has arisen or a new idea has appeared worthy of trial, this Company has taken the lead in issuing new texts. All its publications are constantly being revised to date.

THE AMERICAN BOOK COMPANY maintains a highly organized editorial department, composed of specialists in the various branches of school work. Of the hundreds of manuscripts read each year, only a comparatively few are regarded as good enough to be accepted. Before publication these are subjected to searching criticism, in order that they may be free from fault. Everything possible is done to make the books stand the severest test of school use.

"IF YOU WANT A THING WELL DONE, DO IT YOURSELF" is the motto of the AMERICAN BOOK COMPANY in making its books. So it has its own factories, one in New York, the other in Cincinnati. Both are of modern fireproof construction, equipped with the latest machinery and appointments, and carefully planned for the safety, comfort and health of the employees. The operatives are well housed, well treated, well paid, and contented. They remain year after year with the Company, many having learned their trade and spent their working lives in its employ.

THIS MEANS that all the books published by this Company are as good as they can be made to-day, and they will be made still better just as soon as improved inventions make it possible.

New books, so attractive in appearance and so interesting in contents, that they should be in stock in every book store.

Though intended primarily for schools, they are equally desirable for general use.

Story Hour Readers—Four Books

These books present jingles, followed by interesting complete stories, brimming over with humor and action. The numerous illustrations are in color.

Lucia's Peter and Polly in Winter

Tells of the winter good times of two little children who live in the country. Skating, coasting, and sleigh-riding form the subjects of stories that every boy and girl will read with delight.

White's Pantomime Primer

Gives the children an opportunity to indulge in their fondness for "make-believe." The nursery rhymes in the book are suited to acting, and suggestions for this are furnished by the unusually attractive silhouette illustrations, some of which appear on this page.

We issue 274 volumes of Supplementary Reading, on all subjects, for children of all ages.

Our complete illustrated descriptive catalogue of these books is at your service.

The Horace Mann Readers

The Horace Mann method of teaching reading is a common-sense method. It develops in children the process of self-activity and suggests simple, interesting and effective plans for developing and preserving the child's natural powers of self-expression.

The Horace Mann method is a method of power. Children who are brought up on this method when thrown upon their own resources can read with ease any book within their normal grade and scope.

The Horace Mann method requires very little extra paraphernalia. The child, the teacher, the blackboard, and the books are all that is needed to make this method successful. The Horace Mann Manual tells how to teach each day's lesson in the first year.

"I hold every man a debtor to his profession, from the which, as men of course do seek to receive countenance and profit, so ought they of duty to endeavor themselves, by way of amends, to be a help and ornament thereunto."—BACON.

STATE SCHOOL BOOK PUBLICATION UNDER INJUNCTION.

THAT the government publication of school text books is a most unwise extension of the administrative duties of the State has been repeatedly and clearly pointed out by many competent—and disinterested as well as competent—to judge, so clearly pointed out that probably most educational authorities consider the proposition proved. Elsewhere in this issue of the PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY we reprint Mr. Pulsifer's well-reasoned argument on this subject, not because it raises new points, but because it so clearly and forcefully marshals old ones that any bookseller may read it with profit.

Every local bookseller is, in this state textbook conflict, on the firing line. Socialized endeavor of any sort may be anathema to many of the trade; most of the trade, however, like the public in general, are inclined to judge each case of state socialization of specific industries on its individual merits. Some protrusions of the state into business may seem, to even a majority of the trade, praiseworthy progressive, others questionable, others frankly to be condemned. And in the last class, if we may trust experience as well as reason, the publication of schoolbooks must be placed.

That such publication is not only unwise but unfair, legally unfair, is a further conclusion perhaps not so frequently drawn. But the Chicago bookseller who brought suit recently, against the Board of Education of that city to restrain it from publishing and selling its own "spellers" and other school books not only believed that he was suffering from such "unfair competition," but had the courage of his convictions sufficiently to fight for them. Mr. Francis W. Lane charges that the actions of this Board in empowering Superintendent Ella Flagg Young to arrange for the compilation and publication of a spelling book and in appropriating $9,710 of the city's money for such publication were illegal extensions of the Board's powers.

The PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY does not believe that the argument of unfair competition is as strong a one in this case, either legally or in the tribunal of popular opinion, as that derived from the inherent wisdom of private publication. Americans, as a people, are believers in individualism, in privately controlled business. On the whole they embark in governmental enterprise with caution and even hesitancy. The burden of proof with us is always on the advocate of socialism. If, nevertheless, the latter can show the wisdom of his course in the particular instance he advocates no amount of precedent, no regard for private privilege, no plea for private business gain can, in the last analysis, prevail against him. The American public may be cautious in socialization to the point of sluggishness and conservative in the protection of property rights to the point of moral astigmatism; once, however, it is convinced that government ownership or operation would in some particular instance promote the public weal it is almost impossible to combat its demand.

In maintaining the advantages to the public of private over public school book publication the PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY believes publishers and booksellers stand on firm ground. Arguments based on selfish interest may have and do have, weight; they may even prevail; but they are not the strongest or safest arguments.

CHICAGO SCHOOL BOOK PUBLICATION ENJOINED.

SUIT for injunction seeking to restrain the Board of Education from publishing and selling a speller for use in the Chicago public schools was filed early in July in the Federal Circuit Court by Francis W. Lane. The suit named the Board of Education, Peter Reinberg, president; Lewis E. Larson, secretary; Mrs. Ella Flagg Young, superintendent of schools; Mayor Carter H. Harrison, City Comptroller John E. Traeger and City Treasurer Michael J. Flynn.

In his petition Mr. Lane charged that the resolution of the Board of Education empowering Superintendent Young and teachers of the public school to act as a committee to compile the speller and the proceedings for the printing and publishing of the books and the expenditure of $9,710 of the city's money for the 140,000 books were illegal acts.

Mr. Lane asked that a temporary injunction should be issued, so the proceedings for the printing and publishing of the spelling book may be stopped, and that the defendants be restrained from selling the spellers or any textbook to or for the use of pupils of the public schools, and from requiring the pupils to purchase such textbooks.

UNIFORM ENTRANCE REQUIREMENTS IN ENGLISH, 1914-1919.

THESE lists are those adopted by the National Conference on Uniform Entrance Requirements in English, and the old name College Entrance Requirements has been changed because this list is now widely used in many institutions other than those preparing distinctively for college.

New books are in heavy face type.

READING.

GROUP I—CLASSICS IN TRANSLATION.

Two to be Selected.

The Old Testament, comprising at least the chief narrative episodes in Genesis, Exodus, Joshua, Judges, Samuel, Kings, and Daniel, together with the books of Ruth and Esther.

Homer's Odyssey, with the omission, if desired, of Books I, II, III, IV, V, XV, XVI, XVII.

Homer's Iliad, with the omission, if desired, of Books XI, XIII, XIV, XV, XVII, XXI.

Virgil's Aeneid.

The Odyssey, Iliad, and Aeneid should be read in English translations of recognized literary excellence.

For any selection from this group a selection from any other group may be substituted.

GROUP II—SHAKESPEARE.

Two to be Selected.

Shakespeare's Midsummer-Night's Dream, Merchant of Venice, As You Like It, Twelfth Night, The Tempest, Romeo and Juliet, King John, Richard II, Richard III, Henry V, Coriolanus, Julius Cæsar, Macbeth, Hamlet.

N. B.—The last three only, if not chosen for study.

GROUP III—PROSE FICTION.

Two to be Selected.

Malory's Morte d'Arthur (about 100 pages).
 Bunyan's Pilgrim's Progress, Part I.
 Swift's Gulliver's Travels (Voyages to Lilliput and to Brobdingnag).
 Defoe's Robinson Crusoe, Part I.
 Goldsmith's Vicar of Wakefield.
 Frances Burney's Evelina.
 Scott's Novels: any one.

Jane Austen's Novels: any one.

Maria Edgeworth's Castle Rackrent, or The Absentee.

Dickens' Novels: any one.

Thackeray's Novels: any one.

George Eliot's Novels: any one.

Mrs. Gaskell's Cranford.

Kingsley's Westward Ho or Hereward the Wake.

Reade's The Cloister and the Hearth.

Blackmore's Lorna Doone.

Hughes's Tom Brown's Schooldays.

Stevenson's Treasure Island, or Kidnapped, or The Master of Ballantrae.

Cooper's Novels: any one.

Poe's Selected Tales.

Hawthorne's The House of the Seven Gables, or Twice Told Tales, or Mosses from an Old Manse.

A collection of short stories by various standard writers.

GROUP IV—ESSAYS, BIOGRAPHY, ETC.

Two to be Selected.

The Sir Roger de Coverley Papers, or Selections from The Tatler and The Spectator (about 200 pages).

Boswell's Selections from the Life of Johnson (about 200 pages).

Franklin's Autobiography.

Irving's Selections from the Sketch Book (about 200 pages), or The Life of Goldsmith.

Southey's Life of Nelson.

Lamb's Selections from the Essays of Elia (about 100 pages).

Lockhart's Selections from the Life of Scott (about 200 pages).

Thackeray's Lectures on Swift, Addison, and Steele in the English Humorists.

Macaulay: One of the following essays: Lord Clive, Warren Hastings, Milton, Addison, Goldsmith, Frederic the Great, or Madame d'Arblay.

Trevelyan's Selections from life of Macaulay (about 200 pages).

Ruskin's Sesame and Lilies, or Selections (about 150 pages).

Dana's Two Years Before the Mast.

Lincoln's Selections, including at least the two Inaugurals, the Speeches in Independence Hall and at Gettysburg, the Last Public Address, and Letter to Horace Greeley, together with a brief memoir or estimate of Lincoln.

Parkman's The Oregon Trail.

Thoreau's Walden.

Lowell's Selected Essays (about 150 pages).

Holmes's The Autocrat of the Breakfast Table.

Stevenson's Inland Voyage, and Travels with a Donkey.

Huxley's Autobiography and selections from Lay Sermons, including the addresses on Improving Natural Knowledge, A Liberal Education, and A Piece of Chalk.

A collection of Essays by Bacon, Lamb, De Quincey, Hazlitt, Emerson, and later writers.

A collection of Letters by various standard writers.

GROUP V—POETRY.

Two to be Selected.

Palgrave's Golden Treasury (First Series) Books II and III, with special attention to Dryden, Collins, Gray, Cowper, and Burns.

Palgrave's Golden Treasury (First Series) Book IV, with special attention to Wordsworth, Keats, and Shelley (if not chosen for study).

Goldsmith's The Traveller, and The Deserted Village.

Pope's The Rape of the Lock.

A collection of English and Scottish Ballads, as, for example, some Robin Hood ballads, The Battle of Otterburn, King Estmere, Young Beichan, Bewick and Grahame, Sir Patrick Spens, and a selection from later ballads.

Arnold's Sohrab and Rustum, and The Forsaken Merman.

Selections from American Poetry, with special attention to Poe, Lowell, Longfellow, and Whittier.

STUDY.

GROUP I—DRAMA.

One to be Selected.

Shakespeare's Julius Cæsar, Macbeth, Hamlet.

GROUP II—POETRY.

One to be Selected.

Milton's L'Allegro, Il Penseroso, and either Comus or Lycidas.

Tennyson's The Coming of Arthur, The Holy Grail, and The Passing of Arthur.

The selections from Wordsworth, Keats, and Shelley in Book IV of Palgrave's Golden Treasury (First Series).

GROUP III—ORATORY.

One to be Selected.

Burke's Speech on Conciliation with America.

Macaulay's Two Speeches on Copyright, and Lincoln's Speech at Cooper Union.

Washington's Farewell Address, and Webster's First Bunker Hill Oration.

GROUP IV—ESSAYS.

One to be Selected.

Carlyle's Essay on Burns, with a selection from Burns's Poems.

Macaulay's Life of Johnson.

Emerson's Essay on Manners.

MODERN LANGUAGE REQUIREMENTS

Typical Texts in French and German.

The Requirements in French and German follow the recommendations of the Committee of Twelve of the Modern Language Association as given below.

FRENCH.

1st year: A well-graded reader for beginners; Bruno's Le Tour de la France; Compayré Yvan Gall; Laboulaye, Contes bleus; Malot, Sans Famille.

2d year: Daudet, Le Petit Chose; Erckmann-Châtian, stories; Halévy, L'Abbé Constantin; Labiche et Martin, Le Voyage de M. Perrichon; Lavis, Histoire de France.

3d year: Bazin, Les Oberlé; Dumas novels; Mérimée, Colomba; Sandeau, Mlle. de la Seiglière; Tocqueville, Voyage en Amérique.

4th year: Dumas fils, La question d'Argent; Hugo, Quatre-vingt-treize;—Les Misérables; Loti, Pêcheur d'Islande; Taine, L'Ancien régime; Vigny, Cinq-Mars; an anthology of verse.

GERMAN.

1st year: After one of the many readers especially prepared for beginners,—Meissner's Aus meiner Welt; Blüthgen's Das Peterle von Nürnberg; Storm's Immensee, or any of Baumbach's short stories.

2d year: Gerstäcker's Germelshausen; Eichendorff's Aus dem Leben eines Taugenichts; Wildenbruch's Das edle Blut; Jensen's Die braune Erica; Seidel's Leberecht Hühnchen; Fulda's Unter vier Augen; Benedix's Lustspiele (any one). For student's preparing for a scientific school, a good scientific reader is recommended.

3d year: Heyse's, Riehl's, Keller's, Storm's, Meyer's, Ebner-Eschenbach's, W. Raabe's, Novellen or Erzählungen can be read. Schiller's Wilhelm Tell; Freytag's Die Journalisten; Heine's Harzreise.

4th year: Goethe's, Schiller's, Lessing's works and lives.

Spanish Typical Texts.

The requirements in Spanish, which follow the form and spirit of the recommendations made for French and German by the Committee of Twelve of the Modern Language Association, is based upon recommendations made by a committee of that association in December, 1910.

Juan Valera, El Pájaro verde; Perez Eschrich, Forluna; Ramos Carrion and Vital Aza, Zaragüeta; Palacio Valdés, José; Pedro de Alarcon, El Capitán Veñeño; the selected short stories of Pedro de Alarcon or Antonio de Trueba.

AN ARGUMENT AGAINST STATE PUBLICATION.

By W. E. PULSIFER, President of D. C. Heath & Co.

THE ORIGIN AND HISTORY OF THE ONTARIO PLAN OF PUBLISHING AND DISTRIBUTING SCHOOL BOOKS.

IN the early '40's Upper Canada, now known as the Province of Ontario, decided that there should be uniform text books throughout the province and that the government should control the prices. This applied particularly to the readers.

The Irish National Series of Readers was first authorized in 1846 and prices were fixed. In 1868 these readers were displaced by the Canadian Series. In 1884 it was decided to have a new set of readers, and an announcement to this effect was sent out to publishers.

Three Canadian companies, the Canada Publishing Company, the W. J. Gage Company and the Copp Clark Company, printed these readers, each paying $2500 to the government for a complete set of plates. The three companies published the readers under contract for ten years, dating from January 1, 1885. At the end of that time the readers were revised in minor respects, the revision being paid for by the publishers. The price of the Second Reader was reduced from $0.25 to $0.20; the Third from $0.35 to $0.30; the Fourth from $0.45 to $0.40. The old contract had expired in 1894, and the renewal for a period of ten years was made in March, 1896.

Sir James Whitney, the leader of the opposition (the Conservative party) in his campaign against the Liberal Party, made the school-book business an issue. His party won in 1905. At that time his government was not ready to offer a new set of readers, and so it asked for tenders for publishing the old books for a year and a half longer. The former publishers got together and submitted the price of $0.49 for furnishing the complete set of readers which they had previously sold at $1.15. They did this because they had in stock a large number of books, and they realized that if they did not cut their price some other publishing company or companies would doubtless be awarded the contract at some reduction of price, and their surplus stock would be a dead loss. The three firms printed as few books as possible during the period of a year and a half, and at the expiration of that time they were completely out of stock and were simply staving off dealers who ordered books from them. They had succeeded in creating a fine situation for the enemies of the school-book business in Ontario, for their ruinously low emergency prices established a precedent which has prevailed ever since.

Sir James Whitney's government appointed a commission in July, 1906, to investigate the text-book matter, which commission decided to take up the whole question in a vigorous way. The government chose, as the editor, Dr. D. J. Goggin, a man who was at that time manager of the Canadian Publishing Company. The government, under his direction, prepared the material for a set of readers and advertised for the publishing of the books, the quality of paper, binding, and typographical work being specified in the tender. The T. Eaton Company, operating a department store which does a large mail order business throughout Canada and which maintains a printing plant for its own use, was the lowest bidder. Eaton & Co.'s prices were:

Primer	96 pp.	.04
First Book	128 pp.	.06
Second Book	224 pp.	.09
Third Book	352 pp.	.14
Fourth Book	416 pp.	.16

The total cost of these readers is $0.49, the same as was charged for them by the three companies which had fixed an emergency price in order to get rid of a surplus stock before another contract should be let, their readers being good for nothing in any other market. The contract was awarded to Eaton & Co. for ten years from August, 1909.

A prominent Canadian publisher asserts positively that Eaton & Co. cannot manufacture the readers for the prices at which they sell them; that he recognizes it purely and simply as an advertising proposition on Eaton & Co.'s part. Moreover, these readers are sold for cash in any quantities to purchasers by Eaton & Co. at 20% discount, and when patrons make up an order for as much as $10 worth or more of Eaton's goods, the charges on the shipment are prepaid, provided the order is not for books alone.

COST TO THE GOVERNMENT.

The cost to the government of preparing the readers is given in "Report on the Cost of Text-Books in the Province of Ontario, 1911," p. 32:

Books (composition and electros)...	$2,859.55
Copyright	170.91
Drawing, including half-tones, zincs, and flag	1,183.68
Cover plates for books (brass).....	80.00
Editorial expenses	4,400.00

$8,694.14

It is doubtful whether the item "Editorial expenses" includes the salary of the general editor.

The government has also printed its own set of arithmetics and its grammar. The copy books, the speller, the hygiene, and the histories are published from plates owned by the publishers bidding.

TAX UPON THE GOVERNMENT.

It has been stated that the government paid $8,694.14 for making the plates, for copyrights, drawings, cover plates for books, and for editorial expenses in the case of the readers. This charge the taxpayers of Ontario have to pay. The government also has to maintain an editorial department with all of the attendant expense of preparing the material for all of the publications that the government issues.

FUTURE CONTRACTS.

Dr. Goggin would not dare to say that, when the contract with Eaton & Co. for the readers expires, that company will renew it, and for the reason that it must be losing a large amount of money on the business. Eaton & Co. probably figure that they are partially reimbursed for the loss on the sale of the readers by the advertising that the company's name on the title page of the readers gives them. It is, therefore, purely an advertising proposition for Eaton & Co. It appears that the Ontario schools are the victims of a department store.

MANUFACTURING COST MORE THAN THE SELLING PRICE

The Ontario readers cannot be made either in Canada or the United States at the prices for which they are sold. The lowest figures obtainable for the manufacturing of a primer in the United States from manufacturers who turn out an immense number of books, and who were asked to bid on quantities of five, ten, and twenty-five thousand were as follows:

	Lots of	Paper, Printing, Paper & Print- ing Inserts, Binding.
Primer (a 96 page book.....)	5,000	.0795 per copy
(A modern Primer contains 10,000 128 pages and so is a third larger).	25,000	.0777 per copy
		.0766 per copy

The highest price was as follows:

Primer.	5,000	.0927 per copy
	10,000	.0897 per copy
	25,000	.0879 per copy

It will therefore be seen that the manufacturing cost of a primer in the United States, to say nothing of the cost of plates or editorial work, is from nearly four to six cents more per copy than the price charged for the primer sold by Eaton & Co. It should also be remembered that Eaton & Co. give 20% discount on this four-cent primer, which brings its cost to the dealer to .032—this for a book that must cost the publisher over seven cents, and the government the additional cost of plates and editorial work!

CANADA COST HIGHER THAN THE AMERICAN COST

One of the largest printers in Canada wrote under date of August 22, 1913, as follows:

"I have access to the records in connection with the cost of some of these Ontario books and also on a large number of similar books, and the costs here are about the same as the prices mentioned in your letter (the prices given above) in a number of cases, but on the whole are somewhat higher, averaging 10% to 15% higher."

GEORGIA PRINTING, BINDING AND PAPER COST.

Superintendent Brittain of Georgia asked from the Byrd Printing Company of Atlanta, April 9, 1913, at what price that company would furnish the paper, print and bind 10,000 Ontario primers exactly like the samples submitted. The bid from the Byrd Printing Company was $0.12½ on 10,000 and $0.11½ on 50,000. (See Superintendent Brittain's annual report of June 1, 1913, pages 35 to 37.) Asked to bid on 10,000 copies of Wheeler's Primer (a modern book), the Byrd Printing Company agreed to print and bind the same in lots of 10,000 at $0.25; in lots of 50,000 at $0.22½. The Georgia State Board adopted five years ago Wheeler's Primer at $0.25, and the pupil paid this price.

THE TRUTH ABOUT THE CANADA DEALERS OR BOOKSELLERS.

So far as the Canadian dealer is concerned, he is handling books for practically nothing. Almost all the companies insist upon cash accompanying the order. The dealer pays the freight on all orders under $25, and the largest discount which under any circumstances he can receive from the publisher is 20%. There is absolutely no provision for exchange when books are discontinued, so any shelf stock that a dealer may have is a dead loss. There is no provision for exchanging an old book for a new one. In the United States, when an adoption of a new book is made, the firm securing such adoption is usually required to take up the shelf stock of dealers, in order that they may not be out of pocket because of a change in books for which they were not responsible. In the case of State adoptions when the volume of business is large, the child swapping an old book for a new one is allowed 50% of the State price of the new book, so that his new book costs him only half the State price. In Georgia the State Board of Education requires the publishers to establish two or three depositories in each of the counties. The publishers ship books, freight paid, and give the depositories a discount from the State price.

A FAIR COMPARISON.

From what has been said, it is seen that government-made Canadian books are sold at less than the cost of paper, printing and binding. No State, unless it followed the Ontario plan and allowed department stores or other business concerns to use the schools as fields for advertising, could produce the Ontario books, cheap in quality as they are, at the prices charged for them by the Toronto department store. In order to make a fair comparison between the Ontario and an American publisher's price there should be included:

1. The cost of editorial work and manuscript.
2. The cost of illustrations, engraving, type-setting and electrotyping.
3. The cost of paper, printing and binding.
4. The cost of distribution, including boxing, carting and transportation—freight or express.
5. The deterioration of plates. Twenty per cent. should be written off the cost of plates as soon as they are made, and 10% yearly thereafter. (This is the publisher's method of handling his plate account.)

6. Insurance on plates.

7. Plate alterations and plate repairs—a yearly cost.

8. Interest on plate and editorial investment.

9. Cost of distribution, viz., per cent. to dealers.

This cost and the fixed charges thereon a publisher has to pay, and a State that enters into the publishing field, even on the Ontario plan, would have them to pay. When this is summed up it will be found that the margin of gross profit between the present prices of school books now authorized in Georgia and their actual cost is very small indeed.

COST OF EXCHANGING BOOKS.

To this initial cost the publisher must add the exchange cost, viz., 50% of his list price. If a State gives an exchange price of 50% on the first year's supply, as the American publishers do, and as Ontario does not, it will lose enormously on the basis of the Ontario prices, and will lose largely even on the basis of present Georgia prices, for three times as many books are bought and exchanged the first year while the 50% exchange allowance is made as in any other year of the five of the State adoption period.

INITIAL COST—ONE STATE'S EXPERIENCE.

A legislative committee was appointed in California in 1891 to examine into all matters concerning the compilation and manufacture of State text-books and to report to the Assembly within twenty days the amount of money appropriated, the amount expended, etc. The committee employed F. F. Dunn as their expert, who reported to Hon. F. L. Jones, chairman, March 10, 1891. This report was published. Page 4 of this document gives the several amounts appropriated by the Legislature from 1885 to 1901 for the compilation and printing of books as follows:

Act of Feb. 28, 1885, for printing, etc.	$150,000
Act of Feb. 28, 1885, for compilation...	20,000
Act of March 15, 1887, for printing (deficiency)	7,500
Act of March 15, 1887, for printing...	157,500
Act of March 15, 1887, for compilation	15,000
Act of March 15, 1887, for printing...	50,000
Total.....	$400,000

The expert reported that there had been spent for compilation alone $28,100.28, and that the physiology, the advanced geography and civil government had not yet (1891) been made. To this sum he adds for electrotyping, $12,943.13; for engraving, $13,991.98. Total, $55,035.39.

This total for compilation and plates omits two books most expensive to make, viz., a physiology and an advanced geography, before taking into account the paper, printing and binding of the books at all. This was the initial plate cost, without interest on investment or any overhead charge.

From 1885 to 1906 the State had spent $66,-

600 for compilation, i. e., for preparing manuscripts of common school books; $2,179,497.77 for manufacturing them, and $96,000 for warehouse construction, printing office improvements and new machinery, making a total of $2,342,097.77. (See report of Mr. Robert Furlong, secretary of the California State Text-book Commission, printed in the report of the Superintendent of Public Instruction, September 14, 1906.)

It is of interest to note in this connection that all the State-made books were afterwards condemned and thrown away, the money spent for compilation and plates being thus lost, and a new set of plates leased from various school-book publishers.

COST OF PLATES TO GEORGIA.

Georgia could not make a complete set of plates for the common and high school books recently adopted by the State Board for less than $125,000.

The annual sale of school books under State adoption in Georgia being about $150,000, a good business man would consider a $125,000 plant to handle this amount of trade as needless as a 10,000 horsepower engine to haul one freight car.

The educational publisher, whose market is the English-speaking world, can afford to make a larger investment in plates. He needs and can afford the large engine, for his freight train is long and heavy.

THE ONTARIO PRIMER.

The advocate of State publication in Georgia declares this to be the equal of an American primer, his opinion differing radically from that of other judges. He compares a 96-page book (the Ontario primer) with a book a third larger (the American primer). He calls attention to its selling price (four cents), knowing full well that it cannot be manufactured for less than from seven to nine cents from plates that have been paid for by the Ontario taxpayers. "Why this difference in price?" he asks. "Why should Georgia children pay sixteen cents for a primer no better than one sold in Ontario for four cents?" Why should this gentleman pay $30 for a suit of clothes, when he can buy one for $5; or $50 for an Elgin watch when he can buy an Ingersoll for $2? He would probably answer that the difference in the prices of the two suits of clothes and the two watches is because of the difference in quality. But the gentleman ought to know that if Georgia should make even as poor a primer as the Ontario book, paying the price charged for the manuscript, the editorial expense, including salaries, the cost of drawings for pictures, the cost of engraving, typesetting and electrotyping, the cost of paper, printing and binding, the cost of boxing, including clerk hire, the cost of carting, freighting and expressing, the cost of bookkeeping, to say nothing of losses from bad accounts, the State would lose money selling such a book at sixteen cents, the price at which Georgia has recently adopted a primer.

CANADIAN CRITICISM OF THE ONTARIO PRIMER.

It may be thought that the judgment of an American publisher concerning the Ontario primer would be more or less biased. Fortunately there is on record an opinion from a well-known educational journal of Canada, and a series of resolutions from a body of Ontario teachers, both of which condemn the Ontario primer in no measured terms.

The Trinity University Review of March, 1910, published in Toronto, Ontario, Dominion of Canada, contained a review of the Ontario readers. Among other things it said:

"The primer is a poorly bound and abominably illustrated little book of 96 pages, expensive indeed even at four cents, its regular selling price. The primer is obviously not prepared according to any system of teaching reading—and before the book can be used the child must be taught how to read. We are not surprised that the teachers throughout the province have expressed their disapproval of the series, and of the primer especially.

"Passing on to the so-called first reader, we find a book similar to the primer: the print is poor, the illustrations cheap and nasty, the binding flimsy, the selections quite disarranged. Like the primer, the first reader is worthless as a text-book.

"The second reader, a most unattractive publication of 218 pages with thirty illustrations, shares all the faults which we have found in the two preceding volumes of the series. In one respect, perhaps, it is even worse—in scrappiness and general disorder it surpasses the primer and first reader, if that be possible. And so one might run through the entire series. In every book the same faults are to be found, everywhere is displayed the same lack of artistic skill, of pedagogical knowledge and of literary judgment."

On October 15, 1909, a resolution was adopted unanimously by the Waterloo County (Ontario) Teachers' Association in convention. This resolution is as follows:

"To the Hon. Dr. Pyne, Minister of Education, Toronto:

"We, the teachers of Waterloo County, in convention assembled, wish to call your attention to the new primer as being unsuitable for practical work for the following reasons:

"It is not systematic.

"It does not recognize phonics, which is the natural way for children to learn to read.

"It does not teach pupils to teach themselves, having to depend entirely on the teacher.

"It makes it hard for the teachers to teach and hard for the pupils to learn.

"We would respectfully suggest that you again authorize Morang's Phonic Primer, which all teachers having primary classes have proved ideal, being simple and methodical, and containing none of the aforesaid objections.

"The new primer is not even as good as the Canada Publishing Company's Primer, which was set aside by the large majority of the teachers in the province for Morang's.

"We should like to see Morang's authorized again, or one similar in arrangement and giving prominence to phonics.

"I am, sincerely yours,

"P. FISCHER, Secretary-Treasurer."

"Expensive at four cents," "worthless," is the verdict of competent educational authorities against the book that the advocate of State printed text-books in Georgia has declared is the equal of an American primer.

THE AMERICAN PRIMER: WHAT IT IS, WHAT IT MEANS AND WHAT IT COSTS.

Just what do the words "A Primer for Beginners in Reading" mean to the average primary teacher in the United States, and by what standard does she appraise these books before approving or condemning? Does "primer" to her mean merely a sufficient amount of desultory printed matter in words of one or two syllables, scantily illustrated, which is to be administered in the allotted daily dribble throughout the first term of the child's first school year—as in the case of the Ontario primer? Let us see.

Whatever these words may mean to the Canadian teacher, the average primary teacher in the United States realizes clearly that the first six months at school determine largely the child's attitude toward school and school work throughout the remainder of his school life. She realizes, too, how much the healthy, normal child is obliged to leave behind when he enters the school door. For his endless free activity he is given the cramped immobility of an orderly position at the school desk; for all outdoors, the four walls of the school-room; for his incessant chatter and unrestrained soliloquy and dialogue, the enforced silence or stilted speech of the classroom; for his busy fingers, the cramped clutch of pencil or pen; for the many interesting sights and sounds which fill the young child's eyes and ears from morn till night, the teacher's face, the blackboard and the pages of one book—his primer! The American primary teacher, therefore, is in no doubt as to the peculiar significance of this particular book, which is, indeed, next to herself, the most vitally important factor in the entire outfit of the beginner's class. She knows that this is the thing which, more than any other, will help reconcile the child to his new surroundings; that the primer is the one obvious, concrete thing she has to offer him for all he leaves at the door; and, moreover, that it is the golden master key which later will unlock other doors to new games, new sights and sounds, new companions and new speech.

Because of these facts the primary teacher in the United States has, little by little, established for the author and publisher of primers certain requirements in the makeup and contents of these books, which neither of them can afford to disregard. These fundamental requirements are:

1. A binding so stamped and of such a coloring that it will appeal at once to the child, reminding him of his treasured gift books at home. (The binding of the Ontario primer has no such appeal. In both color and stamping it is not different from books for adults.)

2. A primer must be attractively illustrated, and partly or wholly in colors. The drawings must be of that open line character which appeals more directly to the young child's mind than drawings showing only masses of light and shade. These illustrations, moreover, must be such that the child will find in them the playmates and pets he has left at home, and a continuance—graphic at least—of the activities to which he was accustomed before entering school. These drawings must, at the same time, avoid the introduction of elements which might leave unpleasant or harmful impressions in the child's mind. The drawings must illustrate the text and also be homogeneous throughout; that is, if the same children or pets appear and reappear throughout the text, they must appear and reappear throughout the drawings, no matter how they may vary in dress or action. (In the Oregon primer it would appear that no special drawings whatever had been made, the printer simply inserting any odd plate he had at hand which bore any relation to the text—no matter how remote.)

3. A primer must be printed on high-grade paper which will permit of a clear printing impression from both the text and illustration plates. (The Ontario primer is printed on paper but very little better than newspaper.)

4. A primer requires special typography. This implies hand-set type, the size of which should be exactly that which the pedagogical and medical experts have established as proper for the six-year-old child. The type-line should not exceed a certain specified length, nor should the space between lines be less than a specified minimum. The type, also, should be varied at different points throughout, to better emphasize certain aspects of the text. In short, the typography of an American primer must not only be easily legible, but such that will arouse the interest and pique the curiosity of the child. (The deadly monotony in the typography of the Ontario primer can only be likened to that of the average country newspaper, minus the display matter.)

These requirements make a primer at once the most difficult and expensive of books to make, since they imply special modifications all along the line in the customary rules of bookmaking. In the first place, good authors are scarce, as to write such a book implies a rare knowledge of childhood and child psychology, and long experience in the teaching of beginners. "Many are indeed called, but few chosen," and these few are invariably women. No man has yet written a successful primer, and there is as much likelihood of his doing so as of an elephant hovering a brood of chickens. This is almost equally true of the illustrations of a primer; one or two men only have succeeded, and, be it noted, even they but partially. The editing of such a primer is also extremely difficult, for it implies a knowledge of the subject almost, if not quite, equal to the author's, and little short of positive genius in that checking up and combining the work of author, artist and compositor so necessary in securing the well-balanced page. It should be noted that not the least of the editor's difficulties is the securing of the special type required, since but comparatively few printing establishments, even among the most important, are fully equipped for this kind of work. Indeed, so thoroughly are the difficulties of setting up and printing a primer understood that many printers absolutely refuse to undertake work calling for a costly equipment of type which is practically useless in the typesetting of other books.

It is very clear, therefore, that the making of a satisfactory reading primer is, in the United States at least, a most highly specialized piece of work, and that it is recognized as such by all the experts concerned in its publication or use. It is equally clear on the same expert opinion that it would be practically impossible to make a satisfactory primer, in the American interpretation of these words, under the régime of State publication of text-books—except at a cost to the taxpayer largely in excess of what he now incurs under the present open market system.

AS TO AUTHORS.

A really good author, either of text-books or any other type of books, will not consent to have his sale confined within one territory. He writes his books for the reading world, not for one section of it.

The Constitution of the United States gives Congress the power to promote the "progress of science and useful arts by securing for limited times to authors and inventors the exclusive right to their respective writings and discoveries." (Section 8, paragraph 8.)

Congress has under this constitutional provision given the author this "exclusive right" by the enactment of a copyright law, which protects his book from piracy or any other use that would deprive him from enjoying the full benefit of the largest sale that his publication can command. Wherever the Stars and Stripes float over our territory, there the American author's books have the full protection of the Copyright Law. It is doubtful whether a State would have the constitutional right in the absence of a specific agreement to confine the sale of an author's book within such State's geographical boundaries. It is equally doubtful whether a State would have a constitutional right to manufacture and sell an author's books to other States.

It would have been a crime against the literary world to have confirmed the sale of Shakespeare's plays to England; Dante's "Divine Comedy" to Italy; Hugo's "Les Misérables" to France. It certainly would have been a great misfortune to the lovers of literature if the masterpieces of Cooper, Hawthorne, Irving, Poe and Longfellow had been barred from any section of the South; and it would have been equally a misfortune to the readers of the North if the songs of Lanier and Loveman, the fiction of Harris and Page, not to mention the works of many other talented Southern authors, had been held within the territories of the several States in which these authors lived and wrote.

Dr. Joynes, of the University of South Carolina, either wrote or edited German text-books that have been sold largely in every State of the Union. Dr. Gildersleeve, formerly of the University of Virginia and now of Johns Hopkins, is known to the Latin department of every university, college and secondary school in America as an authority on the grammar of the Latin language. His books are used in all sections of the United States.

Dr. Maury's excellent series of geographies has been studied by millions of American school children, and Sanford's arithmetics have had almost as wide a use. These four eminent text-book writers are Southern authors, but the children of every State in the Union are privileged to use their books. It is indeed fortunate for the educational world that no single State monopolized the publications of these authors.

"California Books by California Teachers" was the slogan of the "Sand-lot" politicians of that State from 1882 to 1885. Behold, California books by California teachers have come and gone, and their authors have seldom been heard of outside that State; but there have been other text-book writers in California, such as Benjamin Ide Wheeler and David Starr Jordan, whose texts are widely known not only in this, but in other countries as well. These are authors who would not be walled in, who would not allow a single State to mortgage the best product of their brains.

GEORGIA AUTHORS.

That the educational people of Georgia have produced and will continue to produce excellent text-books there is every evidence. Any really good text-book manuscript, no matter from what State it may come, readily finds a publisher; but the clever Georgia writer is not going to invoke the protection of the national copyright law for Georgia alone. He will not for professional as well as for financial reasons agree that his State's lines shall shut in his books. That the State can have books made by Georgians there is no doubt. California had some of hers made by the day's work and the experiment to date has cost the State more than a million dollars and the public schools a serious educational loss.

Suppose that Georgia should have manuscripts written by certain people who can be hired to do the work after a fashion. It is conceivable that a local geographer of the experience and knowledge of Frye cannot readily be found to prepare geography manuscript. Why should not Georgia's children, the dearest possessions of the State, have the benefit of the best authorship? Why should the texts of Frye, Tarr and McMurray, Redway and Hinman, Dodge or King, noted writers of geography, be shut out of the State in order that one Georgia man or a group of men may try the dangerous experiment of furnishing State-prepared books by local authors only?

Will Georgia shut her doors against the best text-book writers of the world?

Will Georgia, by limiting the sale of its authors' books to that State, deprive the country from enjoying the benefits of their efforts?

This will inevitably be the result of the adoption of State published text-books.

VALUE OF EXPERIENCE AND TRAINING.

Is it possible that the experience and training of the body of experts now engaged in the making of school books is worth nothing? Is it possible that a State can select one editor from the ranks of its educators, who can step into an editorial office, without previous training, and function these as successfully and satisfactorily as men who have spent their lives in the editorial offices of publishing houses? If so, human experience counts for nothing. To answer this question in the affirmative would be to say that an inexperienced man, although he may be a good scholar, could successfully superintend a large railroad system, a cotton factory, a silk factory or any other manufacturing establishment. It is like saying that in these days a man can jump, fully armed, from the head of Jove into the very heart of a great industry, and function as successfully as men who have had long training and experience in the work of supervising and caring for such industry. The proposition is absurd.

Mr. Thurber, of Boston, a remarkably able editor, declares that the making of school books is a fine art which few master. The advocate of State publication in Georgia evidently believes that it is as easy to make a text-book as to print a law report from copy all ready for the press, and that it is essentially the same kind of a job.

THE PUBLISHER'S EXPERIENCE.

The publisher has the world from which to draw his manuscripts. He selects them with the greatest possible care and judgment, and yet but few of his published books are profit earners. The publisher has to stand the loss occasioned by the publication of unprofitable books—that is, books that fail to meet the needs of any large number of pupils and teachers. If this is the expert publisher's experience, what warrant is there for supposing that an untrained editor will have a different one? Why should we believe that he will be able with unerring judgment to select satisfactory text-books, when it is understood that the trained and experienced publisher, who invests his own money in the plates of such books as he prepares, and for that reason uses his own and the critic's best judgment in determining their educational worth, is able to secure such a small percentage of really successful publications?

Of course, if a State, by law, forces into the schools any books that a State editor may select, and allows the children to use no others for five years, or ten years, as in Ontario, the books so chosen and imposed will not at once be a total loss to such State. But at what great cost to the children who are forced to use such poor educational tools will this forcing be done!

With all due respect to the gentleman from Georgia, his plan "saves at the spigot and leaks at the bung."

SCIENTIFIC RESEARCH AND LABORATORY WORK IN TEXTBOOK MAKING.

(By CHAS. WELSH, of the World Book Company.)

We live in an age of scientific research, and the laboratory is becoming a more and more important adjunct to industry and commerce. This has spread from Germany, where it was first extensively employed, to the United States, which is fast overtaking the former in the volume of the laboratory work it is doing in connection with manufactures of almost every kind. The Dupont Company, the General Electric Company, the Eastman Kodak Company, the Edison Company, the National Carbon Company, the Berlin Mills Company, Swift & Co., and at least fifty other big industrial concerns in the country have extensive laboratories and half-size equipments for experiments, many of them, according to Mr. A. D. Little, of Boston, Mass., expending over $300,000 a year in experimenting alone.

The purpose and effect of this scientific research in laboratory work is to secure the best possible article at the lowest possible price, even though the cost of the research work must be paid for from the proceeds of the sales, and this applies specially to the making of textbooks for schools. The makers of the best textbooks for schools are among the foremost of those enlightened industries who spend enormous sums in research and laboratory work in order to produce a perfect article. I know of one series on which not only was several hundred dollars expended in revising the manuscripts of each of the books by scientific experts and educators, but each book was tried out and tested in a sample edition which cost at least $1,000 a book before the plates for the definitive edition were finally made and the books were offered for sale and adoption. Altogether there was spent in producing this particular series, which is not a large or a costly one, more than $10,000 in the way of laboratory experimenting for which the layman would not think to account.

At least $5,000 will have been spent in laboratory work on another educational outfit which is now under way before the definitive edition is made and the work offered for adoption and sale.

The International Correspondence Schools spend thousands of dollars on research and laboratory work before launching a set of instruction papers in any course of study.

These are modest examples of the money and time expended by publishers in research and laboratory work; this laboratory work takes time, skill, and large sums of money, which are never spared by the best publishers of textbooks in order to produce as perfect a teaching instrument as possible, and the publisher must get a profit on the sales large enough to recoup himself for these laboratory outlays, the burden of which must be distributed over the whole life of a book; it could never be recovered from the sales of two or three editions.

Now, when a State proposes to rent plates in order to turn printer and publisher, it must in common honesty be prepared to shoulder its proportion of this laboratory work, and pay such royalty for the uses of the plates as will give the publisher the same margin of profit as though he had manufactured and sold the book himself. Otherwise this is making the State a present of the money expended in his research and laboratory work, or, rather, the attitude to-day seems to be that the State is proposing to confiscate it. This leads to the obvious conclusion that the only benefit this method of State publication can give the people who buy the books will be whatever can be saved on the manufacture, that is, printing, paper and binding. Now, it is well known that in no business is there keener competition than in that of the manufacture of school textbooks, and it has yet to be seen that a State can manufacture the same quality of goods cheaper than the publisher who is in the open market for this work.

But the renting of plates is fraught with all kinds of danger. In the educational publisher's laboratory the research work to which I have referred is going on all the time, and by careful and constant revision, whenever the progress of knowledge calls for it, his books are kept abreast of everchanging conditions. New discoveries are being made and better methods discovered, from time to time, and as soon as these are tested and tried the books are revised to include them.

We know from experience that when once a State has rented plates or has made a book itself, every idea of change is sternly opposed, and there is no organization that can do for this work of revising and keeping textbooks up to date what the textbook publisher with his experience and organization can do.

ARTHUR LIBRARY SOLD IN LONDON.

As in the Huth sale, George D. Smith was the heaviest buyer at the sale at Sotheby's in London of the library of the late T. G. Arthur, on July 15, 16, 17; his purchases aggregated slightly over half of the entire $37,725 taken in at the sale. Some of the most prominent books coming to America are: Jonathan Swift's "Gulliver's Travels," in two volumes, 1726, $1,250; Shelley's "Epipsychidion," 1821, $520. A first edition of "Alice in Wonderland," with illustrations by Tenniel; inserted are two letters in the third person from C. L. Dodgson (Lewis Carroll) to the original owner of the copy, $1,000. A first edition of Ben Jonson's works, with a portrait of R. Vaughan inserted; titles of various dates; $285. A first printing of Milton's "Lycidas," published at Cambridge, 1638, $700. A fine copy of the first edition of "The Vicar of Wakefield," in two volumes, 1766, $460. A first edition of Keats' "Lamia, the Eve of St. Agnes, and Other Poems," 1820, $390. First edition of Keats' "Poems," 1817, $600. First edition of "The Last Essays of Elia," 1823-33, $280. First edition of Thomas Gray's "An Elegy Wrote in a Country Church Yard," 1751; last leaf torn and mended; $1,475. The copy of this book in the Hoe library was sold for $5,000. Defoe's "Robinson Crusoe," three volumes, first edition, 1719-20, $550. Dickens' "Sketches by Boz," first edition of both series, plates by Cruikshank, in original cloth, 1836-37, $185. Robert Browning, "Dramatic Idyls, Second Series," final proof sheets with author's autograph corrections, $335. Byron's "Poems on Various Occasions," first edition, a very fine copy of a privately printed work, a great part of the edition of which was destroyed by the author, 1807, $840.

Some of the books purchased by foreign dealers were: First edition Scott's "Waverley," $1,000. First edition of "Vanity Fair," $414. Shelley's "Address to the Irish People," $1,200. First edition of "Paradise Lost," $520.

THE FIGHT FOR THE GOOD WILL OF "WEBSTER'S DICTIONARY."

G. & C. MERRILL COMPANY MAKES STATEMENT BEFORE COMMITTEE ON PATENTS RELATIVE TO PROPOSED COPYRIGHT AMENDMENT—OVER $2,000,000 SPENT IN ADVERTISING THE "WEBSTER" NAME.

THE firm of G. & C. Merriam Company, of Springfield, Mass., has spent over $2,000,000 in advertising its later revised editions of Webster's Dictionary, says the Washington correspondent of Printers' Ink in a recent issue of that journal. This is in addition to over $1,200,000 expended upon the literary revision of the dictionary since the copyright expired, and it has no intention of permitting, without a fight, an amendment of the copyright laws that, it is claimed, would destroy the monopoly which the company has enjoyed in the publication of a dictionary under this title. The American Law Book Company, of New York, publisher of the Cyclopedia of Law and Procedure, has, according to the same authority, joined hands with the Merriam company and is making common cause in opposition to the bill which has been introduced in Congress for the purpose of amending the existing copyright laws with respect to the so-called "secondary meaning" right attaching after the expiration of copyright.

This bill, which, as the PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY has already noted, is the latest move in the "Webster Dictionary" litigation, is being supported by Mr. G. W. Ogilvie, who appeared in Washington in this connection last week as the representative not only of his own publishing interests, but also as spokesman for the W. B. Conkey Company, of Hammond, Ind., the Syndicate Publishing Company, of New York, etc. The Merriam company, in replying, by means of verbal statements and carefully prepared briefs, to the attack of Mr. Ogilvie, makes the declaration: "The bill was apparently framed by, and introduced at the request of, one George W. Ogilvie, to affect pending litigation. Ogilvie seeks to legalize conduct which the courts have declared to be actually fraudulent. He is appealing from the courts to the legislature. The sole purpose of Ogilvie's proposed amendment is to authorize him and his kind to steal the trade of the Merriams, built up by over seventy years of honorable business effort. The effect of the proposed amendment will be to tie the hands of the courts and prevent them from giving a common-law remedy against a common-law fraud."

ORIGIN OF SOME SO-CALLED WEBSTER'S DICTIONARIES.

In explanation of the motive supposed to inspire this current effort to secure new legislation, the Merriam company, addressing the Committee on Patents of the United States House of Representatives, says: "Ogilvie has taken a British dictionary, known as Chambers' Twentieth Century Dictionary, and having no connection or relation with any edition of Webster's Dictionary, and has republished under the name Webster's Inter-Collegiate Dictionary. Two other publishers, for both of whom Ogilvie said he was authorized to speak before the committee, viz., W. B. Conkey Company and M. A. Donohue & Co. have each taken a British dictionary, known as Blackie's Shilling Dictionary, and have had photographic plates made thereof and reprinted and sold the same in this country under the name of Webster's Dictionary. Suits are pending against Conkey and Donohue to enjoin such fraudulent dictionaries. Cupples & Leon and the Syndicate Publishing Company have done the same thing with still another British dictionary published in England under the name of the British Empire Dictionary. Suits against them are also pending."

Discussing the confusion which would result from the passage of the bill supported by the opposition publishers, the Merriam company says: "There have long been published various periodicals widely known under the names, Harper's Magazine, Harper's Weekly, Harper's Bazar, etc. Each number as issued is, and must be, separately copyrighted as a book. The copyright has long since expired upon the early volumes of these publications. Under this bill any person could publish, put upon the newsstands and sell any sort of periodical entitled Harper's Magazine or Harper's Weekly or Harper's Bazar. It might or might not contain matter from the expired volumes of the original productions. The same thing is true, of course, as to the Atlantic Monthly, Scribner's Magazine, the Century Magazine, and others.

"Again, the Encyclopædia Britannica has been widely advertised (at a cost, the witness later declared, of more than $1,000,000), and has long been known under that name. There are several other encyclopædias of greater or less merit, such as the International Encyclopædia of Dodd, Mead & Co.; the Crown Encyclopædia, the Encyclopædia Americana, and others. Under this bill the publisher of any of these encyclopædias, if sufficiently unscrupulous, could legally rip off the covers, tear out the title page, re-entitle them as the 'Encyclopædia Britannica,' and sell them broadcast through the country upon the reputation and advertising of the original and genuine book which has cost the proprietor millions of dollars."

DOCTRINE OF SECONDARY MEANING.

The doctrine of "secondary meaning" was explained for the benefit of the Congressional committee by William B. Hale, representing G. & C. Merriam Company, as follows: "If a person uses a name for his goods so long and so exclusively that the public gets to think that the goods bearing that name come from that establishment, then, although the name may be in the public domain, it may be the name of an expired patented article, it may be the name of a copyrighted book upon which the copyright has expired, it may be a personal name like 'Hall's Safes,' it has a secondary meaning. Another man by the name of Hall might make safes; the name may be in the public domain; it may be a geographical word, like 'Elgin watches' or 'Waltham watches'—the name of the town where the article is made, say, 'Minneapolis flour'—those names having been used so long by the original manufacturer of them that they have come to indicate to the public in general his goods, i. e., goods of a particular make or brand. Any person else using those names must put some indicia on them to show that they are his own product, in order not to deceive the public, and that is the whole law of secondary meaning.

"The copyright upon the first Webster's Dictionary expired in 1834 and became public to all the world. Anybody had a right to make that a first point of departure and to make their own revisions, and there might have developed two lines of Webster's dictionaries. For example, two persons might have taken an early edition of Webster's Dictionary, and each made his own revision of it, and each one could have built up his reputation and good will, with the books distinct. As a matter of fact, it was not done. From 1834, when the name, if at all, first fell into the public domain, until 1890 there was only one series of Webster's Dictionary, and that was the series published and developed by the Merriam company and by Noah Webster himself. Noah Webster developed his book and changed it until he died in 1843.

MERRIAMS THE ORIGINAL PUBLISHERS.

"The Merriams took it up, in connection with Webster's family, his sons and others at that point and developed it until to-day, so that in the market to-day, among people alive and using dictionaries, Webster's Dictionary, as the name of a book, means not the old, expired book, the obsolete book of 1834 or of 1876 or of 1847, or any prior date. It means what Webster's Dictionary has become under the development of one line of publishers. During all of this time Webster's Dictionary has had but one source. Not until 1890 did other publishers even attempt to use the name 'Webster's.'

"In 1890," continued Mr. Hale, speaking for the Merriam company, "Ogilvie bought a set of photographic plates of the expired 1847 Webster Dictionary, and proceeded to sell that book as Webster's Dictionary, accompanied with such advertisements, such trade exploitation as to pass it off as and for the dictionary which the Merriams were selling in 1890, which was then known as Webster's Dictionary. Several sets of plates were made and two or three publishers were publishing the reprint book at that time. Mr. Ogilvie founded his large book upon the 1847 edition, skipping over all those other books."

COMMUNICATIONS.

THE SINGLE-ISSUE MAGAZINE NOVEL.

Editor THE PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY:

New Haven, Conn., July 18, 1914.

We wish to express our appreciation of, and agreement with, your editorial of July 11 in the PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY, in regard to the "Single-Issue Magazine Novel." We agree with you entirely, and we believe that, in the long run, the effect of this unwelcome innovation cannot possibly be otherwise than deadly.

We have taken occasion to write these sentiments in two letters to the firm that have been publishing these magazine novels in book form.

Incidentally, we want to say that the first "Pick-up" in the issue of July 4 of the PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY, page 18, is the cleverest thing of the kind that has yet come to our notice.

Very truly yours,
THE EDW. P. JUDD CO.,
A. B. Fifidd, Secy.

Editor THE PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY:

Milwaukee, July 18, 1914.

I WISH you would give this letter publicity in your WEEKLY.

The August number of one of the most popular 15-cent magazines makes this statement on its cover:

"Published complete in this issue a full book-length novel; in book form it will sell for $1.50; in this magazine, 15 cents, and here you get it first."

It is up to booksellers and publishers to meet this competition, which is unfair. In the first place, it is a misstatement, as book would not sell for $1.50; it is only 136 pages in magazine, and in book form would not be published at over $1.25 to $1.30. It is time every bookseller should take this magazine off his counter, and, what is more effective, "refuse to buy the novel when it appears in book form." I would go even further: I would refuse to buy any book written by an author who gives his or her novel to any magazine to be published in advance of appearance in book form.

Yours very truly,
E. HIGGINS,
Book Dept., Boston Store.

OBITUARY NOTES.

DAVID WATERS, who for nearly half a century conducted a bookstore in Montreal, died June 29. Prior to his retirement, three years ago, his store was located for the past thirty years on St. James Street, a little east of Bonaventure Station.

PERSONAL NOTES.

SAMUEL GABRIEL, the art publisher, is among those who have gone abroad. He will be gone about ten weeks.

ACTON DAVIES, the well-known dramatic critic of the New York Sun, has resigned. No successor has as yet been appointed.

W. H. WRIGHT, of the Blackwell-Weiland Book and Stationery Company, St. Louis, recently visited friends in New York.

L. S. McMILLAN, of the McMillan Book Co., Syracuse, and his representative, Guy Hamlin, are at the home office after a business trip in the West.

HORACE M. GRAY, formerly manager of the foreign department of W. R. Jenkins Co., is now general manager of the Devin-Adair Co., 437 Fifth Avenue, New York.

A. S. BURBANK, 2d, with the Edward P. Judd Co., New Haven, Conn., has been attending the school of salesmanship and pen manufacture of the L. E. Waterman Co.

LANSING G. WETMORE, of Scrantom, Wetmore & Co., Rochester, with Mrs. Wetmore, is now touring Europe with a party of friends from that city. They will return early in September.

REV. W. J. DAWSON, author of "The Vision of Souls," etc., is spending July in British Columbia, completing his book, "America, and Other Poems." He dedicates this book, to be published in the fall, to his son, the novelist, Coningsby Dawson.

F. EDWARD HAFELY, secretary and treasurer of the W. N. Sharpe Co., Inc., and Miss Mabel G. Thompson, of Canada, were married at St. Andrew's Church, Harlem, on Saturday, July 18. When last heard from the young couple were sojourning at the Delaware Water Gap.

WILLIAM CAINE, the English novelist, who came to America this spring for his first visit, has become so infatuated with the country that he has taken a bungalow on the New England coast for the summer. Mr. Caine will remain here until the appearance in the autumn of his new novel, "But She Meant Well," to be published by Lane.

LITERARY AND TRADE NOTES.

BOOKSELLERS will do well to look into Andrews Wilkinson's "Plantation Stories of Old Louisiana," a new Page book reminiscent of "Uncle Remus."

"LOVE'S LEGEND," though a work of fiction, deals with the problems of early married life. In laying the date of publication of H. Fielding-Hall's book on August 22, Henry Holt & Company evidently plan to catch the June bride, just back from the honeymoon and looking about for something to fill up those first long days in the new bungalow.

BARSE & HOPKINS are taking advantage of the summer baseball fever in publishing at this season a series of five baseball stories for boys. The books are gotten up with attractive covers and colored wrappers calculated to set small boys gaping into bookstore windows. The titles are: "Lefty o' the Bush"; "Lefty o' the Big League"; "Lefty o' the Blue Stockings"; "Lefty o' the Training Camp"; "Brick King, Backstop."

THE English house of Thomas Nelson & Sons are exploiting the new poster stamp craze in a most systematic and clever way. Not content with stamps merely advertising their books, they have designed a series of attractive and varied "book-plate" stamps. These "Ex Libris"—and artistic ones they are, too—may be either sold by the bookseller or given away to his customers, as he prefers.

IT IS ALMOST TOO LATE to catch the summer traveller before he leaves for Europe. But a man just back from abroad is as crazy as a man just about to go—he will buy any book, regardless of price, that covers any place he visited or hopes to visit next time. Booksellers will do well to have on hand in September a supply of "The Motor Routes of Germany" (Macmillan). The book is written by a practical tourist who has spent six summers in motoring through Germany.

THE REILLY & BRITTON COMPANY state that A. C. McClurg & Co. have boosted the advance sale of "The Eyes of the World" above the half-million mark by an order for 100,000 copies. With publication day set for August 8, the Reilly & Britton Company state that they confidently expect that the advance sale will reach 600,000, as the tendency on the part of dealers generally has been to increase orders after having read an advance copy of the book. Total orders from jobbers to date exceed 300,000 copies, which takes into account the United States only.

BUSINESS NOTES.

CHICAGO.—The Dial and affiliated publications has combined with The Inland Printer, and will hereafter be published from the latter office, 632 Sherman Street, Chicago. The Browne family keep their active connection with The Dial as heretofore.

GALLIPOLIS, O.—The S. A. Moore Company Book Store burned July 1, with a loss of $8,000, fully covered by insurance. Origin of the fire is unknown.

GLENS FALLS, N. Y.—Ray F. Suprament, who last year succeeded Moody & Suprament, booksellers, is offering creditors 25 cents on the dollar.

MONTREAL, CAN.—Annie M. Cassidy, proprietress of D. & J. Sadlier & Co., booksellers and stationers, has withdrawn from the firm. Henry E. Wall has registered as the new owner.

MONTREAL, CAN.—A new book and stationery store has been registered under the name of Librarie Parisienne Longue Pointe.

NEW YORK CITY.—The Jessup & Moore Paper Company, with offices in Boston, Philadelphia, Wilmington, Del., and Elkton, Md. has been incorporated under the laws of Massachusetts, with a capitalization of $3,000,000, consisting of 10,000 shares of 7 per cent. cumulative first preferred, 7,500 shares of 7 per cent. cumulative second preferred, and 12,500 shares of common stock. The real estate includes the Augustine Mills, Wilmington, Del.; the Rockland Mills and Delaware Soda Fibre Pulp Mills, Christiana Hundred, Del.; Chester

Mills, Coatesville, Pa.; Radnor Pulp Mills, Elkton, Md.; and Kenmore Paper Mills, Providence, Md. The incorporators are G. Barker, P. E. Atkinson, I. V. Brock, A. C. Gould, E. C. Fisher, G. R. Merrill and W. J. Martin.

NEW YORK CITY.—The publishing building at 241 West 37th Street, three floors of which are occupied by E. P. Dutton & Company, and which has as tenants also several other publishing and printing firms, including G. Shirmer, Pictorial Review, the PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY and the Rider Press, was sold last Wednesday by the builders, the Marmac Construction Company, to Louis Auerbach. The building is a twelve-story loft structure, built last year, is fully rented and was held at $450,000.

THE PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY

American Educational List, 1914

The List plans to cover all textbooks sold in quantities for class use in American schools and academic institutions at a minimum price of 10 cents. This includes books prepared especially for supplementary reading in primary and grammar schools, classical and foreign texts in French, German, Italian and Spanish annotated for schools, English texts following as far as practicable the list required for college entrance examinations 1914-19, dictionaries, and comprehensive school editions of Shakespeare.

The List does not include textbooks used in universities and professional or technical schools, supplementary reading sold singly for school libraries, paper editions of English texts which are also offered by the publisher in cloth binding, works of reference (except dictionaries), teachers' aids (except teachers' manual forming part of a textbook series), works out of print or superseded by newer editions, or works obsolete in the sense of being no longer sold in quantities for class introduction, but only in individual copies to schools having the book already in use. For such works see the American Educational Lists of previous years.

Entries are under authors or editors; classical texts are entered under editor's name, foreign and English texts under author's name with editor's name in parenthesis. For revised subject classification, and for collective reference to classical authors entered under editors, see the second part of this List, following the main alphabet.

The price given is the "net" or introduction price made by the publisher (with close trade discount only), for which a copy is sent to a teacher or bookseller postpaid. Books priced at retail, with regular trade discount, are designated by a dagger (†) in the price column. Where an additional mailing charge is made for postage, on single copies, an asterisk (*) precedes the price. When there is a blank in price column the publisher failed to give information. A double asterisk () designates books forthcoming and yet unpriced. New books issued since List of 1913 are designated by a double dagger (‡) before title.

Be particular in ordering to specify edition, and to give the full name of the book as entered in this list.

SUBJECT CLASSIFICATION

For the American Educational List, 1914.

This classification is in nineteen main classes shown by center headings in BLACK FACE CAPS:

ART	LANGUAGE AND LITERATURE	NATURAL SCIENCE
BUSINESS TRAINING	MANUAL OF TRAINING	PENMANSHIP
ECONOMICS AND CIVICS	MATHEMATICS	PHILOSOPHY
EXAMINATIONS	MUSIC	PHYSICAL TRAINING
GEOGRAPHY	MYTHOLOGY	READING AND ELOCUTION
HISTORY		SUPPLEMENTARY READING
KINDERGARTEN

Divisions of these main headings are shown by black face lower case, and subdivisions by SMALL CAPS. The index below shows under which of the main heads any specific subject may be sought, except that self-evident references, as from French language to Language, are not given.

The names refer to the preceding author list, where prices, publishers, etc., are entered.

Where such subdivisions as "elementary," and "higher" are used, books are placed under them only if so designated by publishers. Otherwise they may be found under the larger division. Series are entered only under "graded."

The Publishers' Weekly

Subscription Rates.

One year, postage prepaid in the United States, $4.00; foreign, $5.00.

Single copies, 10 cents. Educational Number, in leatherette, 50 cents; Christmas Bookshelf, 25 cents.

Advertising Rates.

One page	$25 00
Half page.....	14 00
Quarter page.....	7 00
Eighth page.....	4 00
One-sixteenth page.....	2 00

The above rates are for unspecified positions. Special rates for preferred positions (full pages only).

Higher rates are charged for the Summer Reading, Educational Number and Christmas Bookshelf, and for the monthly Book Review supplement sections.

Advertising copy should reach us Tuesday noon—earlier if proof is desired out-of-town. Forms close Thursday night.

Under the heading "BOOKS WANTED" book-trade subscribers, under their own names, are given five nonpareil lines (exclusive of address) free advertisement for specific books out of print in any issue except special numbers, but not exceeding 100 lines a year. If over five lines are sent the excess is at 10 cents a line. Books not out of print, unspecified wants, repeated matter, and all advertisements from non-subscribers, cost 10 cents a line. Objectionable books are excluded so far as they are noted.

In answering, please state edition, condition and price, including postage or express charges. Houses that will deal exclusively on a cash-on-delivery basis should put [Cash] after their firm name. The appearance of advertisements in this column, or elsewhere in the WEEKLY, does not furnish a guarantee of credit. While it endeavors to safeguard its columns by withholding the privileges of advertising should occasion arise, booksellers should take usual precautions in extending credit.

"Books Wanted" must be designated by actual title, not by "any."

Write your wants plainly, on one side of the sheet only. Illegible "wants" are ignored. The WEEKLY is not responsible for errors. Parties with whom there is no account must pay in advance.

Under "BOOKS FOR SALE" or for other small undisplayed advertisements, the charge is 10 cents a nonpareil line. No reduction for repeated matter. Count seven words to the line.

Inland Printer, complete set, publisher's binding, half russia, excellent condition, vols. 1 (1883) to 37 (1912), $300, f. o. b. Vol. 1 is scarce, and has sold for $25. The Inland Printer is the leading periodical of the all-important printing art, and the only one broadly covering its literary, historic, artistic and technical development. Its paid circulation equals and probably excels all other American printers' periodicals. Subscription price is $3. Each issue has more matter than in any other magazine published; beautifully printed. Also a number of odd vols. bound and issued at $3 per, useful for completing sets.

Printing Art, complete set, publisher's binding, half morocco, excellent condition, vol. 1 (1903) to vol. 12 (1908), $30, f. o. b. Deals with artistic development of printing; splendid, unequalled example of the printer's art.

American Bookmaker, half roan, excellent condition, vol. 11 (1891 to 26 (1896), very scarce, $15, f. o. b. Publication of great merit, edited by Pasko.

BUHLIG'S BUSINESS ENGLISH

With Preface by DANIEL B. DUNCAN, Professor in Columbia University.

This remarkable book completely fills every need of a Business English class—spelling, grammar, punctuation, oral English, letter writing, and business practice—all treated with thoroughness and interest. It not only impresses the student with the necessity for accuracy, but actually inspires him to attain it.

The book also develops an eagerness to know about modern business methods and problems in order to gain the ability to speak and write convincingly of them. An eminent authority on business education declares of Buhlig's Business English

"There is nothing in print to take its place."

Cloth. 386 pages.

Price, $1.10.

NEW IDEA TEXT BOOKS

Daily English Lessons

By WILLIS H. WILCOX, PH. D.

Professor of English, Maryland State Normal School.

Book I, 45c Book II, 60c

Arranged and prepared in accordance with the report of the Committee on Grammatical Nomenclature appointed by the National Educational Association, and follow the most recent plans suggested for making the teaching of daily English more practical and less mechanical. These books do not presuppose a well-trained teacher, but propose to train any teacher to use them effectively in classroom work. Drill work, frequent reviews, model forms, and picture-composition work are features which facilitate the hitherto uncertain effects to teach language that is fluent, correct and in good taste.

History of the United States

By MATTHEW PAGE ANDREWS

156 illustrations. 24 maps. 406 pages.

12mo. Cloth. $1.10

This is a High School Text in American History, prepared by a teacher of broad experience in secondary school work, is accurate, well balanced and thoroughly national in character. The omission of confusing, unimportant and unconnected details, together with its sidelights and general suggestions, stimulates a greater interest in the subject and makes the book a wholesome classroom text, as well as a most interesting and readable story.

The Teaching of Oral English

By EMMA MILLER BOLENIUS

Professor of English and History, Roanoke Woman's College, Salem, Va.

214 pages. $1.00

This book is the result of a movement inspired by the National Council of Teachers of English in favor of greater regularity and better system in supervising the language used by pupils in the classroom and on the playground. It is all that its name implies, and suggests methods and plans for improvement in oral composition that can be applied by the teacher of any grade. The book is definite in plan, descriptive in outline and stimulating to the teachers desiring to fulfill the requirement that the schools teach more effective speech.

WHEELER'S GRADED READERS By GAIL CALMERTON and WILLIAM H. WHEELER

WHEELER'S GRADED PRIMER

List Price, 30 Cents

Cloth, 128 pages, 50 engravings, 28 of them full-page.
The primer vocabulary is small—only 250 words. New words are introduced gradually and regularly and repeated frequently. The sentences are short and easy. The language is plain, natural and conversational. The thought is simple, childlike, and pure. The little stories are stories, and not mere drill upon words.

WHEELER'S GRADED FIRST READER

List Price, 30 Cents

Cloth, 128 pages, 40 engravings, 20 of them full-page.
There is the very closest connection between the Wheeler Primer and the Wheeler First Reader. The plan of the two books is the same. The First Reader begins right where the Primer ends. These books are graded not only from lesson to lesson, but from book to book.

WHEELER'S GRADED SECOND READER

List Price, 40 Cents

Cloth, 160 pages, 33 engravings, 25 of them full-page.
This Second Reader is so carefully graded that it follows the First Reader as easily and naturally as the First Reader follows the Primer. The authors have not forgotten that the Second Reader children need constant drill on familiar words to keep from forgetting them, and that the new words must not be introduced too rapidly.

WHEELER'S GRADED THIRD READER

List Price, 50 Cents

Cloth, 288 pages, 37 engravings, 25 of them full-page.
The mission of this Third Reader is to continue the fundamental processes of learning to read and to create and foster a taste for good reading. The stories are longer and more complete and more conversational than those found in other third readers. The aim of the authors has been to make each lesson so simple that the children can read it easily, and so full of interest that the children will let the thought and the feeling of what they read come from their hearts as well as from their lips. This is the secret of good expression.

WHEELER'S GRADED FOURTH READER

List Price, 50 Cents

Cloth, 288 pages, 31 engravings, 26 of them full-page.

The length of the selections is a special feature of this book, the selections being long enough to be interesting and to mean something when standing alone. Many of the selections were chosen with a definite purpose of introducing the animate children to the children of fiction. Jackanapes, Cosette, Little Charley, Tom and Maggie Gulliver, Paul and Florence Dombey, and those other boys and girls of story land, should be as familiar to the children as their playmates.

WHEELER'S GRADED FIFTH READER

List Price, 60 Cents

Cloth, 448 pages, 39 engravings, 30 of them full-page.

This book was prepared with the conviction that the love for the best books—books which make us clearer in head, larger in heart, and nobler in action—is better—a thousand times better—than all the material wealth the world can give; and with the hope that the pupils will like the charming people of the book world to whom they are here introduced too well to confine their acquaintance within the brief limits necessary to this book.

Unequaled Text-Books

THE SILVER-BURDETT ARITHMETICS

By George M. Philips, LL.D., Principal, and Robert F. Anderson, Professor of Mathematics, West Chester State Normal School, Pa.

This Series is especially well fitted to meet present-day demands. The books offer a wealth of live, thoroughly practical problems. They excel in the drill they give in the fundamental processes. They omit the impractical and the unessential. Published in a two-book and a three-book series. Each series covers the first eight years of school.

THE PROGRESSIVE ROAD TO READING

The leading story-telling-method series in this country. These readers provide—from the first page of the first book—stories that are the classics of childhood. These hold the pupil's eager interest; the simple phonetic method achieves remarkable results in teaching him to read with expression. The illustrations are unusually artistic.

FARM LIFE READERS

A new idea in school readers! Fresh, up-to-date, fascinating material about farm life, showing the possibilities for joy and success in scientific cultivation of the soil. They also offer numerous selections—prose and poetry—which picture the beauty of nature.

Book One (for 4th and 5th grades), 45c; Book Two (for 5th and 6th grades), 50c. Charmingly illustrated.

Gregg Shorthand Leads in the High Schools

Shorthand is taught in the High Schools of 1,852 cities in the United States. Thirty-four systems or text-books are used.

The comparative standing of the five leading systems is as follows:

GREGG SHORTHAND	974 cities
BENN PITMAN	364 cities
ISAAC PITMAN	105 cities
GRAHAM	88 cities
MUNSON	32 cities

The remaining twenty-nine systems are scattered among 289 cities. Stated numerically, GREGG SHORTHAND is taught in the high schools of 385 more cities than the four other leading systems combined; in more than 52 per cent. of the cities in the high schools of which shorthand is taught.

In the private commercial schools, Gregg leadership is still more marked. More than 400 schools adopted it in 1913.

The overwhelming leadership of GREGG SHORTHAND is due to its Simplicity—It is the easiest of all practical systems to learn.

Legibility—It holds the world's record for accuracy at high speed—99.6% perfect.

Speed—Gregg writers won first, second and third places in the Fifth International Shorthand Speed Contest.

Recent Standard Text-Books

The following books, although they have all been published within the last few years, are widely recognized as standard textbooks in their various subjects. They are modern and up-to-date in spirit and treatment; they are fully abreast of the latest developments in teaching; they are eminently suited to do the work of the schoolroom. In short, they are books that will repay further investigation if you are not already familiar with them.
